The Challenge of Democracy (Book Only) By Kenneth Janda, Jeffrey M. Berry, Jerry Goldman, Deborah Schildkraut

THE CHALLENGE OF DEMOCRACY: AMERICAN GOVERNMENT IN GLOBAL POLITICS introduces new co-author Debra Schildkraut to this stellar author team. This best-selling American government text is highly acclaimed for the non-ideological framework it uses to explore three themes: freedom, order, and equality as political values; the majoritarianism versus pluralism debate; and globalization's effect on American politics. Using an easy to follow approach, with chapters and subheadings numbered and organized by learning outcomes, and a new end of chapter "Assessing Your Understanding" section where students can test their knowledge, the twelfth edition provides a solution for teaching and assessing course learning outcomes. Extensively updated, this edition includes new examples, figures, data, and current discussions. The authors include balanced coverage of Obama's historical presidency and coverage and analysis of the 2012 presidential primary campaign and election.

Editorial Review

Review

"Strengths: 1. Conceptual framework. 2. COMPLETE coverage. 3. Unbiased, even-handed approach. Clarity of writing. Consistent, continual theme development throughout the text."

"The freedom-order-equality triad is very good as a tool for determining ideology and it is a good move to come back to it throughout--a definite strength."

"This book is a very comprehensive, yet readable, text on American Government. It is balanced analytically and has extensive online resources. It has been the number one choice among hundreds of my students who have compared it to other major texts."

"Anything that can help my students to succeed is worth serious consideration. I personally like Aplia and feel it makes me a better instructor. Plus, the field of education is becoming more technological and this is a great bridge to fill the gap between in-class lecture/printed text and online interactions."

About the Author

Kenneth Janda is the Payson S. Wild Professor Emeritus of Political Science at Northwestern University.
