When best friends Janie and Katy fell in love with the rich and sexy Lathem brothers Matt & Mark they didn't realize the new family dynamics they would be sucked into.

Family time takes on a whole new meaning when Maureen, the matriarch of the Lathem clan, decides she wants to celebrate her wedding anniversary by taking the entire family on a Caribbean cruise. She drags her husband, seven adult sons, their significant others, five grandchildren and a mother-in-law onto a floating city in the Caribbean Sea with 3000 other passengers... where insecurities and tension between in-laws begin to surface.

Matt and Janie are still enjoying their happily ever after while Katy struggles to find her place in the large family. Frustrated by Maureen's constant pressure to transform her 3 year engagement into wedding bells, Katy boards the ship expecting it to be the worst 14 days of her life. Mid-voyage, panic sets in when Janie's best friend fails to return from a shore excursion with Mark. Remember what happened the last time Katy went missing?

In this book you'll be introduced to Matt and Mark's five younger brothers including Paul, a Navy Seal on leave between tours of duty. He's not excited about being trapped on a boat surrounded by the circus called his family. Is Paul ready to trade in the organized discipline of military life to be a civilian with a wife and family?

First Class Voyage is a light, easy, smile-inducing read that explores love and family in the 21st century.
