Calendar Girls By Andrew Riehm

Buckle in for a thrill-ride of military crime, betrayal, and twisted desire! Calendar Girls is a shocking, stirring, and mischievously clever suspense novel which begs the question, "Who can we trust, who will save us, when one of our guardians is a predator?" Robert John Mercer is a wolf in sheep's clothing. Mercer is a highly skilled, respected, and intelligent soldier who uses his position as a Military Police sergeant and his skills as a sniper to stalk and attack young women around the US Army installation at Ft. Bragg, NC. Mercer uses his street smarts and expertise in criminal forensics to bewilder his victims and contaminate the crime scenes as he strikes again and again, leaving his victims hesitant to report violations they can barely remember. Laura Fox is an attractive, strong, and enthusiastic young female Special Agent in the U.S. Army Criminal Investigations Division (CID); the Army's version of the FBI. Laura's values are rooted in her Native American heritage, faithfully passed down from her grandmother. Laura believes in doing what is right; her only weakness is her compassion. She allows herself to become emotionally involved in her cases, and when the specters of Mercer's crimes appear, her good intentions inadvertently put her in mortal danger. Mercer quickly focuses his sights and appetite on Agent Fox when she begins to investigate his attacks, but Laura is so consumed in the hunt for clues to break the case that she is unaware of the lurking danger. Soon Mercer will be a threat Laura won't be able to ignore. As this fast-paced novel speeds toward its astonishing climax, the hunter becomes the hunted in a shocking chronicle of desperation and survival.

Editorial Review

About the Author

About the Author: Andrew Riehm retired after serving nearly 25 years in the US Army, having toured four continents while both Active Duty and as a Reservist. He is a veteran of five deployments, including combat experience in Desert Storm and Operation Iraqi Freedom, serving most of his career in a Military Police role. He is currently working on a number of fiction writing projects, including the sequel to Calendar Girls and a compilation of short stories. Andrew is also crafting an account of his military experiences, which includes an insider's perspective of the Military Police unit which inherited the aftermath of the international torture scandal at the infamous Abu Ghraib prison in Iraq in early 2004. Andrew lives with his family in Minnesota where he enjoys both seasons of the year: Winter and Road Construction.
