

The Red Right Hand

By Joel Townsley Rogers

The Red Right Hand By Joel Townsley Rogers

With a new introduction by award-winning British crime novelist Martin Edwards.

Written in 1945, The Red Right Hand is considered to be a classic of the American mystery genre.

There was a Little Man - Who Got Away

But how? He killed St. Erme. But what did he do with St. Erme's right hand? St. Erme had a right hand, that much is indisputable. And it must be found. These are the two most essential questions in the sinister problem that confronts me - the problem I must find an answer to before the killer strikes me down too.

With the answer to either or both of those questions the police would have the ugly red-eyed killer stopped. Meanwhile the problem had both the police and Dr. Riddle stopped...
