

Relatable Poems and Stories About Love, Gossip, Break-Ups, Stereotypes, Letting Go, Aspirations, Death and the Weather

By Shelly-Ann Woolery

Relatable Poems and Stories About Love, Gossip, Break-Ups, Stereotypes, Letting Go, Aspirations, Death and the Weather By Shelly-Ann Woolery

A collection of relatable short stories about life: love, faith, heartache, familial conflicts, adventure, grief, death, nature and aspirations. These poetic stories offer a voice to your emotions in times of happiness, joy, curiosity, grief, depression, despair, heartache and romance. The empathy evoked by the words brings forth an understanding in those who are outside of the situation and gives them an appreciation for those who are in it.

This collection starts off with a poem written in Jamaican dialect (translation follows). The majority of the poems are written in modern standard English. The meanings behind the words are easily understood yet each piece has a level of touching profoundness.
