* Reached #31 in the Kindle Top 100

* Reached #1 in Ghost Fiction

A mysterious little boy has begun appearing in the paintings of a New York City artist who can't remember ever actually seeing him. A partially blind, disfigured agoraphobic who suffers crippling panic attacks if he even tries to leave his apartment is forced out by an unseen entity. A lonely widower begins to suffer terrifying nightmares that his long-missing son is still alive...and in mortal danger. A young runaway realizes that a man he thought was his traveling companion is actually his captor.

The lives of four very different people, driven by different but very powerful forces, crash together as they fight to solve their individual mysteries, to defeat a brutal enemy, and to save the life of an innocent boy.
