Editorial Review

Review

“Comparative and International Education: An Introduction to Theory, Method, and Practice, now in its second edition, continues to live up to its name ... New directions and research foci are couched within a succinct and clear explication of the fundamentals of comparative research. Discussions are presented in an easily readable yet thought-provoking way ... Education students, researchers, seasoned teachers, and the growing community of users and producers of comparative studies will find in this book an excellent vademecum. The authors sincerely deserve to be commended for writing it.” - Comparative Education Review
